

How to Become a Howick Mutual Director

Thank you for your interest in Howick Mutual Insurance Company. The following information will provide some background on Howick Mutual and what is involved with becoming a Director.

INTRODUCTION

Howick Mutual Insurance, established in 1873, is an independently operated Ontario Mutual Insurance Company located in Wingham, Ontario. We are proud to be an “Ontario Mutual” company, as we are owned by our policyholders who are the most important aspect of our existence.

At Howick Mutual, policyholders enjoy the benefits of a local company, we understand the importance of quality service and community involvement. Our strength and stability for over 150 years is a result of our quality people, our innovative and progressive products and our exceptional customer service.

We approach everything we do with our vision and mission statements in mind.

Our Vision Statement:

“Minding the Past, Protecting the Present, Sustaining the Future.”

Our Mission Statement:

“Providing responsible risk management and commitment to our community, the Howick Mutual way.”

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

We’re not just a business; we are part of the community. Howick Mutual is committed to giving back to local communities and the organizations within them. We are very fortunate to be surrounded by numerous rural communities whose residents have been instrumental in our success through their continued support of Howick Mutual for over 150 years.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Howick Mutual Insurance Board of Directors is comprised of nine Directors elected by the Howick Mutual Policyholders. Director terms run for three years, and the term ends at the Annual General Meeting of the members. Directors retire annually in rotation and may be eligible for re-election.

ROLE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

As an elected group of members by the Policyholders, the primary role of a Director is to provide oversight and develop strategy to allow Howick Mutual to deliver on its Mission and Vision Statements. The Board also oversees the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation to ensure the success of the organization.

ATTRIBUTES OF A HOWICK MUTUAL DIRECTOR:

The Nomination Committee seeks potential candidates with the following personal competencies:

- Strong leadership and interpersonal skills
- Strategic, visionary thinker
- Effective communication, planning and problem-solving skills
- Strong decision-making skills
- Ability to develop effective working relationships
- Understanding of financial reports including budgetary guidelines and project expenditures
- High level of critical and logical thinking, analysis and/or reasoning skills
- Participating actively at Board Meetings with fellow Directors. These meetings are collegial in nature but tackle important decisions each month that require diligence and insight

TIME COMMITMENT OF A HOWICK MUTUAL DIRECTOR:

The time obligation may vary, but as a guide here is a list of Director commitments over the course of the year:

There are seven in-person Board Meetings per year. You can expect to spend about two to three hours preparing for each meeting. Board Meeting material is provided four to five days in advance of the meeting on a secure file system.

Directors sit on one to three Board Committees. Committees meet both in-person and by conference call depending on committee needs. Committee work can be four to eight meeting days per year.

In addition to the Board and Board Committee Meetings, there are also one to two Board Education day(s) and a two day, off-site Strategic Planning Meeting per year.

You will be expected to attend the OMIA Convention in March of every year and other insurance industry meetings/conventions (one or two additional events). Depending on the event, this may include an overnight stay and possibly a two-to-three-day commitment.

You may also take part in a few special events throughout the year such as social events (ex. Christmas party), and volunteer events but this can vary year to year.

For Board Meetings and official Board events, you will be eligible for a per diem. Travel and accommodation expenses will also be covered by Howick Mutual.
